The book was released by the chief guest, Pu C. Lalsawivunga, Hon'ble Cabinet Minister, Govt of Mizoram and the programme was conducted under the chairmanship of Dr. Lalengkima, Department of Political Science, ICFAI University Mizoram.

Prof. Ginlianlal Buhril, Vice Chancellor, ICFAI University Mizoram

extended a warm welcome to all the ICFAI students and special invitees. He further expressed his gratitude on the occasion of the release of a book that harmoniously blends culture and academics.

The author Dr. Lallawmzuala Khiangte of the Department of Political Science, delivered a speech on his book, stating that it is a research-based work. He explained that through extensive field visits and interaction with various important stakeholders, he was able to gather valuable insights. He further mentioned that the book was developed after a careful study of issues relating to Village Council administration, the functioning of the Sixth Schedule, and comparisons with non-

Sixth Schedule areas. He graciously acknowledged with gratitude all those who contributed to the successful completion of his book.

Book preview speech was delivered by Dr Lalmuana Guite, Asst. Professor who thoroughly examine the book's strengths and limitations. The previewer mentioned that the book is one of its kind and suggests that State government should increase the revenue share of the village councils of Mizoram.

The book was formally released by Pu C. Lalsawivunga, Hon'ble Cabinet Minister of District Council and Minority Affairs, Government of Mizoram. In his address, he commended and praised the work as a valuable and well-researched contribution, noting that such a comprehensive study on local governance is both significant and commendable. He further urged the audience to read the book with keen interest.

Prof. J. DOUNGEL, Department of Political Science, Mizoram University, and Senior Fulbright Research Fellow at the University of Cincinnati, Ohio, USA, expressed his deep appreciation for being a part of the book release programme. He emphasized that the issues highlighted in the book are of great importance and must be well understood and thoughtfully reflected upon by every citizen. Prof. J. DOUNGEL writes forward to the book.

After the formal distribution of the book to the dignitaries, Mrs Fiona Lalmalsawmi, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, delivered the vote of thanks. She expressed her gratitude to all who had contributed to making the programme a success.

The book release programme concluded successfully.
